WITH RECEPTION TO FOLLOW

AT KU EDWARDS CAMPUS, OVERLAND PARK

To support women whose work and leadership are vital to our communities, this year's KU Inspiring Women in Public Administration Conference will build on themes that emerged during the 2012 conference: Having It All and Making the Leap. For some, having it all is about finding a self-directed balance of personal and professional. For others, it requires making a leap: taking the risk to put ourselves in the running for positions of greater responsibility, enabling us to strengthen our influence around the issues we value most. Regardless of the professional stage of your life, please join us on April 17. Be inspired.
